PREFACE.

There have been no pains spared to make this edition of THE CANADIAN PARLIAMENTARY GUIDE as complete as the available space and the importance of compactness will permit, and every effort has been made to secure that absolute accuracy in the most minute details which is essential if this publication is to attain the maximum of usefulness and retain its recognized position as the standard book of reference on Canadian parliamentary matters.

An effort has been made to have all statistical matter compared with official records, and in most cases the official custodians of such records have kindly furnished the matter as it appears in this volume.

Care has been taken to secure completeness and accuracy in the important biographical sections. All new members of the House of Commons and of the Provincial Legislatures (some 250 in number) have been asked for the data from which to compile their biographical sketches, while every sketch published in former editions and republished in this one has been submitted to the man who is the subject of it for personal revision.

Features of this new edition are the lists (with addresses) of the members of the newly elected Canadian House of Commons, and of the new Legislative Assemblies of Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island and Saskatchewan. The complete official election returns are given in each case, as well as detailed returns of all bye-elections which have taken place for the House of Commons and for the several Provincial Legislatures since the publication of the last issue (Jan. 1, 1908).

In response to numerous suggestions, tables giving the results of every bye-election for the House of Commons in the various electoral divisions, since Confederation, have been added to the tables showing the results of the various general elections. The preparation of this list entailed a great deal of work, and, it is to be hoped, will be appreciated.

It will be observed that this volume is published in smaller type than those preceding it, a change being found to be necessary owing to the very considerable expansion of the matter—a result largely of the increased representation in nearly all the Canadian legislative bodies, and of the important elaboration of the election returns of the House of Commons already referred to. The change of type increases the cost of production but enables the volume to be kept within convenient limits as to size, and improves its appearance from a technical point of view.

Attention of readers is especially directed to the "Corrigenda" and "Occurrences during Printing," which latter bring the information contained in the volume up to the moment the very last form was sent to press.

(1) After her marriage with King Philip, July 25, 1554.

(2) Oliver Cromwell adhered to the title of "The Lord Protector of the Commonwealth of England, Scotland, and Ireland"; on December 16th, 1635, assuming the style of "His Highness." He died September, 1658, and his son Richard Cromwell was proclaimed Protector, and resigned the office in May, 1659.

(3) Although Charles II did not ascend the throne until May 29, 1660, his regnal years were computed from the death of Charles I, Jan. 30, 1649, so that the year of his restoration is styled the twelfth of his reign.

The King's legal title to the Crown rests on the statute of 12 & 13 Will. III., c. 3, by which the succession to the Crown of Great Britain and Ireland was settled on the Princess Sophia of Hanover and the "heirs of her body, being Protestants."

THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT

The King, as sovereign, exercises all powers of executive government through a cabinet composed of certain sworn privy councillors, who act as advisers of the Crown, and conduct the public administration in accordance with law and constitutional usage. The Crown is hereditary, but subject to such limitations as may be imposed by Parliament—i.e., by the Crown, the Lords and the Commons.

The Cabinet, or Committee of Ministers, in whom the executive government of Great Britain and Ireland is practically, though not nominally, vested, is selected with the approval of the Crown, by the Premier or First Minister, who is the choice of the Crown, the existence of the Cabinet, the members of which belong to His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, being dependent upon the possession of a majority in the House of Commons, the popular branch of Parliament.

The Parliament of Great Britain is composed of the Crown, the Lords, and the Commons, this division into three branches dating from the middle of the fourteenth century. The House of Lords consists at present (Jan. 1, 1909) of 616—archbishops (2), bishops (24) and peers, the latter divided into dukes, marquesses, earls, viscounts and barons. Three princes of the Royal blood have also seats in the house. Scotland is represented by 16 peers, elected for each Parliament, and Ireland by 28 representatives peers elected for life. The Speaker is the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, who is a member of the Cabinet, and retires with a change of government. The House of Lords has co-ordinate powers of legislation with the House of Commons, except as respects taxation or money bills. It cannot initiate or amend such bills, but it may reject them as a whole. The House of Commons is the body where the chief political power rests. The present Parliament (2nd King Edward VII.) elected in January and February, 1906, consists of 670 members, elected by the legal electors of Great Britain and Ireland, as follows:—

England 465, Wales 30, Scotland 72, Ireland 103. All elections are now by ballot. Since the Reform Bill of 1832 the franchise has been widely extended to all classes who have a stake in the country. There are 6,058,894 voters in England and Wales, 762,861 in Scotland, and 692,726 in Ireland.

The result of the general election was the return of 374 Liberals, 54 Labour candidates, 84 Nationalists, 131 Conservatives and 27 Unionists.

The present British Ministry (Liberal), of which the Prime Minister is the Rt. Hon. H. H. Asquith, M.P., consists of the following members:—

The Lord High Chancellor receives £10,000 a year: the Lords of Appeal in Ordinary, £6,000.

Registrar, Edward S. Hope, C.B. Salary £1,200.

CANADIAN MEMBERS OF THE IMPERIAL PRIVY COUNCIL

The following Canadians have the honour to belong to the Imperial Privy Council, officially designated "His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council," and as such are addressed as "The Right Honourable":—

Laurier, Sir Wilfrid, summoned and sworn July 6, 1897.

Strong, Sir Samuel Henry, summoned Jan. 21, 1897. Sworn July 7, 1897.

Cartwright, Sir Richard John, summoned November 9, 1902.

THE COLONIES OF GREAT BRITAIN

The Colonies proper of Great Britain form three classes:

(1) The Crown Colonies, which are entirely controlled by the home government.

(2) Those possessing Representative Institutions, in which the Crown has no more than a veto on legislation, but the home government retains the control of public officers.

(3) Those possessing Responsible Government, in which the home government has no control over any public officer, though the Crown appoints the Governor and still retains a veto on legislation.

To the last named class belongs the Dominion of Canada.

As a direct outcome of the discussion at the Imperial Conference of 1907 the Colonial Office has been re-organized in three divisions, as outlined in Lord Elgin's despatch of Sept. 21, 1907. The first division is styled "The Dominions Department," which is to conduct the affairs of the self-governing colonies and of the neighbouring protectorates. To this division the Secretariat of the Imperial Conference is linked, without being entirely merged in it. The Imperial Secretary is H. W. Just, C.B., C.M.G., who was one of the joint secretaries of the late conference. Although a member of the Dominions Department Mr. Just has his own special and separate duties. Following on the same lines, Sir Wilfrid Laurier has created in the Privy Council Department (Ottawa), of which the Premier is President, the position of secretary for Imperial and foreign correspondence. On April 21, 1908, Mr. William Mackenzie was appointed to this office. Mr. Mackenzie is a member of the Privy Council department, but, like Mr. Just, has his own special and separate duties assigned to him by Order-in-Council. The position which Sir Wilfrid Laurier took at the Imperial Conference was that whatever was done should be covered by ministerial responsibility, and this has been carefully observed.

The second division of the Colonial Office is the Colonial or Crown Colonies department, which deals with the administrative and political work of the Crown Colonies and protectorates.

The work of the third division is that of the General department, which, although important, does not directly concern the oversea Dominions.

The first "Colonial Conference" was held in London in 1887, the second in Ottawa in 1894, the third in London in 1897, the fourth in 1902, the fifth in 1907. As a result of suggestions at the last-named conference, it was decided to call these gatherings "Imperial Conferences."

THE DOMINION OF CANADA

The territories which now constitute the Dominion of Canada came under the British flag at various times, some by settlement and others by conquest or cession. Nova Scotia (Acadia) was discovered by the Cabots, in the service of King Henry VII, in 1497. The Colony of Halifax was founded in 1749. By the Treaty of Utrecht (1713), Acadia and the Hudson Bay Territory were acknowledged to be British Territory. The Hudson Bay Company's charter, conferring right of government over the territory now known as the Provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and the North-West Territories, was granted in 1670. The old French Colony of Canada was surrendered by the capitulation of Montreal, signed September 8, 1760, and along with Prince Edward Island, and part of the present Province of New Brunswick, formally ceded to Great Britain by France under the Treaty of Paris, signed Feb. 10, 1763.

Vancouver Island was acknowledged to be British by the Oregon Boundary Treaty of 1846, and British Columbia was occupied in 1858.

As originally constituted, the Dominion of Canada was composed of the Provinces of Ontario, Quebec, Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick. They were united under the provisions of an Act of the Imperial Parliament (30 Victoria, Chapter III) passed in 1867 and commonly cited as "The British North America Act, 1867," although its full official designation originally was:—"An Act for the Union of Canada, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and the government thereof, and for purposes connected therewith." This Act received the Royal assent, March 29th, 1867, and came into effect by virtue of Royal Proclamation, July 1st, 1867. This Act expressly provides that the Constitution of the Dominion shall be "similar in principle to that of the United Kingdom" (1st Clause), that the executive authority shall be vested in the Sovereign of Great Britain and Ireland, and carried on in her name by a Governor-General and Council "to aid and advise in the government of Canada, to be styled the Queen's Privy Council for Canada." (Clauses 9, 10 and 11). Provision was made in the Act for the admission of British Columbia, Prince Edward Island, the North-West Territories, and Newfoundland into the Dominion. (Clause 146). Newfoundland alone has not availed itself of such provision. In 1869 the extensive region known under the various designations of "Rupert's Land," "the Hudson Bay Territory," and "the North-West Territories" was added to the Dominion by purchase from the Hudson Bay Company. The Province of Manitoba was set apart out of a portion of it (32-33 Victoria, Chap. 3) and admitted into the Confederation July 15, 1870.

Doubts arising respecting the powers of the Parliament of Canada to establish Provinces in Territories admitted, or which might hereafter be admitted into the Dominion of Canada, and to provide for the representation of such Provinces in the said Parliament, it was deemed expedient, to remove such doubts, to pass a special bill through the Imperial Parliament. As "The British North America Act, 1871" (34-35 Victoria, Chap. 28), this legislation received Royal assent June 29, 1871. It provides that the Parliament of Canada may, from time to time, establish new Provinces in any Territories forming for the time being part of the Dominion of Canada, but not included in any Province thereof, and may, at the time of such establishment, make provision for the constitution and administration of any such Province, and for the passing of laws for the peace, order, and good government of such Province, and for its representation in the said Parliament.

This Act of 1871 also contains the following, among other provisions:—

"The Parliament of Canada may, from time to time, with the consent of the Legislature of any Province of the said Dominion, increase, diminish or otherwise alter the limits of such Province, upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed to by the said Legislature, and may, with the like consent, make provision respecting the effect and operation of any such increase or diminution or alteration of territory in relation to any Province affected thereby.

"The Parliament of Canada may, from time to time, make provision for the administration, peace, order and good government of any territory not for the time being included in any Province."

July 20, 1871, the Province of British Columbia, and July 1, 1873, the Province of Prince Edward Island, respectively, entered the Confederation.

June 25, 1886, the Royal assent was given to "An Act respecting the Representation in the Parliament of Canada of Territories which for the time being form part of the Dominion of Canada, but are not included in any Province," commonly cited as "The British North America Act, 1886" (49-50 Victoria, Chapter XXXV).

This Act provides that the Parliament of Canada may, from time to time, make provisions for the representation in the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, or in either of them, of any Territories which, for the time being, form part of the Dominion of Canada, but are not included in any Province thereof.

The Provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan were formed from the provisional districts of Alberta, Athabaska, Assiniboia and Saskatchewan (4-5 Edward VII Chapter, 3 and 42) and were admitted to the Union as Provinces on September 1st, 1905.

Resolutions adopted by the House of Commons during the last session of the 10th parliament sanction the principle of the extension of the boundaries of Manitoba, Ontario and Quebec northward, but the necessary legislation was postponed. The resolutions proposed to divide the southern portion of Keewatin between Ontario and Manitoba, and to add the whole of the district of Ungava to the Province of Quebec. The extension of Manitoba northward to the 60th parallel of latitude was suggested, the eastern boundary to be extended from the present north-eastern corner of the province to the point where the 89th meridian of west longitude intersects the shore line of Hudson Bay. The remaining southern part of Keewatin (140,000 square miles) it was proposed to add to Ontario. The proposed addition to Manitoba was 180,000 square miles, while the area of Ungava is 466,000 square miles.

THE GOVERNMENT OF CANADA

The present Canadian system of government, which was established under the British North America Act of 1867, is a Federal Union, the first of the kind in the British Empire. It comprises a general or central government controlling matters essential to the development, the permanency and the unity of the Dominion as a whole, and also a number of provincial governments having the control and management of certain clearly defined local matters naturally and conveniently falling within their jurisdiction. These several governments are administered in strict accordance with the principles of British parliamentary government.

The executive power of the Government of the Dominion of Canada, as also the chief command of the military and naval forces, is vested in the King, represented by the Governor-General, appointed by the Crown (the British Government) and advised by a Cabinet chosen from members of the King's Privy Council for Canada, and consisting of ministers, holding departmental offices, besides, often, one or more ministers without portfolios. The Government holds office as long as it has the confidence of the popular branch of Parliament.

The members of the Cabinet must be members of either the Senate or the House of Commons.

According to the B.N.A. Act, 1867, Sec. 55, where a Bill passed by the Houses of the Parliament is presented to the Governor-General for the Queen's assent, he shall declare, according to his discretion, but subject to the provisions of the mentioned Act and to Her Majesty's instruction, either that he assents thereto in the Queen's Name, or that he withholds the Queen's assent, or that he reserves the Bill for the signification of the Queen's pleasure.

ADMINISTRATOR OF THE GOVERNMENT

Up to May 7, 1901, it was provided by Royal letters Patent that the "powers granted His Excellency may in the case of his death, incapacity or absence be given to the Lieutenant-Governor for the time being of Canada, or in his absence to such person as Her Majesty might, by warrant, appoint to be Administrator, or in the absence of such Lieutenant-Governor or Administrator to the Senior Military Officer for the time being in command of Her Majesty's regular Forces in the Dominion".

Upon the date mentioned a dormant commission passed under the Royal Sign Manual and Signet appointing the Chief Justice for the time being of the Supreme Court of Canada, or in case of the death, incapacity, removal or absence from Canada of the Chief Justice, the Senior Judge of the Supreme Court of Canada, to be Administrator of the Government of the Dominion in the event of the death, incapacity, removal or absence of the Governor-General.

The Royal Letters Patent of June 15, 1905, which provided for the change in the designation of His Excellency's office from that of "Governor-General in and over the Dominion of Canada," to that of "Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Dominion of Canada," contained the same provision, as to the Administrator as the dormant Commission, and that instrument being thus rendered superfluous, was withdrawn and cancelled.

The Administrator is vested with all the powers and authorities granted to the Governor-General by letters patent or otherwise.

(See Supreme Court of Canada).

THE SENATE OF CANADA.

According to the British North America Act, 1867, the Senate was to consist of 72 members; 24 for the Province of Ontario, 24 for Quebec and 24 for the Maritime Provinces (Nova Scotia and New Brunswick). Qualifications were laid down as follows:—Must be a British subject; must be thirty years of age; must be possessed of real property, free of all incumbrances, to the value of $4,000; must be a resident of the province for which he is appointed. Senators are appointed by the Governor-General in Council, and, subject to certain conditions, hold their appointments for life. A Senator may by writing resign his seat. His place becomes vacant if for two consecutive sessions of Parliament he fails to attend; (2) if he becomes a subject or citizen of a foreign power; (3) if he becomes a bankrupt or defaulter; (4) if he is attainted of felony or convicted of felony or crime; (5) if he ceases to be qualified in respect of property. The Governor-General in Council appoints the Speaker of the Senate. The debates and proceedings of the Senate are governed by Rules and Orders modelled to a considerable extent after those of the House of Lords, and differing very considerably from those of the House of Commons. Thus honourable gentlemen rising to speak, address themselves to the "Honourable Gentlemen" composing the House and not to "Mr. Speaker" as in the House of Commons.

Each of the Senators from Quebec is appointed to represent one of 24 divisions corresponding with former electoral divisions of the old Province of Lower Canada. Senators for other provinces are not appointed for any designated divisions, but the practice of assuming distinctive territorial designations prevails. A popular practice of Senators who have formerly sat in the House of Commons is to adopt as their designations the titles of their former constituencies. Several are content to be designated as "from" the city or town in which they reside. Senators must continue to reside in the province from which they are appointed.

The first increase in the membership of the Senate took place in 1871, when Manitoba and British Columbia, upon entering the Confederation, were awarded three seats each. In 1873 Prince Edward Island, upon entering Confederation, was given four members, the representation of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick being reduced by two senators each. In 1882 Manitoba was given an additional member, and in 1892 another. In 1888 the North-West Territories were given two senators. In 1904, in virtue of the Act 3 Edward VII, Chapter 42, the representation of the North-West Territories was increased to four. Upon the creation of the Provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan in 1905, each was allotted 4 seats in the Senate, or four additional seats between them.

So the Senate at present consists of 87 members as follows:—Ontario, 24; Quebec, 24; Nova Scotia, 10; New Brunswick, 10; Prince Edward Island, 4; British Columbia, 3; Manitoba, 4; Saskatchewan, 4; Alberta, 4.

In accordance with 5th Edward VII, Chapter 43, an allowance is made to each member of the Senate and House of Commons of $20. for each day's attendance if the session does not extend beyond thirty days, and if the session extends beyond that time an allowance of $2,500 is made. For every day on which a member does not attend a sitting of his House a deduction at the rate of $15. per day is made.

The Senate has co-ordinate powers of legislation with the House of Commons, except in the case of revenue, taxation, or money bills. Though it cannot initiate or amend such bills, it may reject them.

SPEAKER OF THE SENATE.

(Allowance $4,000 a year in addition to sessional indemnity, with official residence in Parliament House.)

The Hon. J. K. Kerr, appointed January 16, 1909.

PREVIOUS SPEAKERS.

Hon. Joseph E. Cauchon, from Nov. 6, 1867, to June 30, 1872.

With resolute energy he applied himself to the mastery of the business in principle and detail and in 1867 was admitted to a partnership. About eight years later, in 1875, the uncles withdrew and were succeeded by Hugh Mackay, a member of the Legislative Council, and his two brothers James and Robert, who continued during their life time in active connection with the house under the style of Mackay Brothers. The death of James Mackay occurred in 1889 and of Hugh Mackay in 1890. Mr. Mackay was President of the Montreal Harbour Board from 1896 until 1907, in which connection his labours were of signal service to the city. THE HOUSE OF COMMONS OF CANADA.

The House of Commons of Canada is elected by the people for five years, unless sooner dissolved by the Governor-General. Members require no property qualification, but they must be of the age of 21, and British subjects, not disqualified by law. The Speaker is chosen by the House at the opening sitting of the first session of each parliament, and has a salary of $4,000 per annum, besides his sessional indemnity, and the Deputy Speaker one of $2,000. Each member receives an allowance of $2,500 for a session of over 30 days, with a deduction of $15 a day for the days he does not attend. The recognized Leader of the Opposition receives $7,000 dollars a session in addition to his ordinary sessional allowance.

The members are elected by constituencies, the electors of which are supplied by franchises under the control of the several provincial assemblies, an Act having been passed in the session of 1898 to make the provincial voters' lists, with some unimportant limitations, available for elections for the House of Commons. From 1885 to 1898, the elections for the House of Commons were held under a Dominion Franchise Act. The qualifications for voting at the elections for the provincial assemblies vary in the several provinces. Voting is in every case by ballot.

The number of members of the House of Commons is regulated by the following clauses of the British North America Act, 1867:—

"51. On the completion of the Census in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and of each subsequent decennial Census, the representation of the four Provinces shall be readjusted by such authority, in such a manner, and from such time as the Parliament of Canada from time to time provides, subject and according to the following Rules:—

"(1). Quebec shall have the fixed number of Sixty-five members.

"(2). There shall be assigned to each of the other Provinces such a number of members as will bear the same proportion to the number of its population (ascertained at such Census) as the number Sixty-five bears to the number of the population of Quebec (so ascertained).

"(3). In the computation of the number of members for a Province a fractional part not exceeding one-half of the whole number requisite for entitling the Province to a member shall be disregarded; but a fractional part exceeding one-half of that number shall be equivalent to the whole number.

"(4). On any such readjustment the number of members for a Province shall not be reduced unless the proportion which the number of the population of the Province bore to the number of the aggregate population of Canada at the then last preceding readjustment of the number of members for the Province is ascertained at the then latest Census to be diminished by one-twentieth part or upwards.

"(5). Such readjustment shall not take effect until the termination of the then existing Parliament.

"52. The number of members of the House of Commons may be from time to time increased by the Parliament of Canada, providing the proportionate representation of the Province prescribed by this Act is not thereby disturbed."

At Confederation (1867), the House of Commons consisted of 181 members, of which Ontario returned 82; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 19; and New Brunswick, 15.

In 1875 there were 206 members. Ontario returned 88; Quebec 65; Nova Scotia, 21; New Brunswick, 16; British Columbia, 6; Prince Edward Island, 6; and Manitoba, 4.

In 1885 there were 211 members. Ontario returned 92; Quebec 65; Nova Scotia, 21; New Brunswick, 16; British Columbia, 6; Prince Edward Island, 6; and Manitoba, 5.

In 1895 there were 213 members. Ontario returned 92; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 20; New Brunswick, 14; Manitoba, 7; British Columbia, 6; Prince Edward Island, 5; North-West Territories, 4.

In 1905 (as per Redistribution Bill of 1903) there were 214 members. Ontario returned 86; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 18; New Brunswick, 13; Manitoba, 10; North-West Territories, 10; British Columbia, 7; Prince Edward Island, 4; the Yukon Territory, 1.

The House remained so constituted until the dissolution of the 10th (last) Parliament, September 17, 1908.

During the first session of the Tenth Parliament of Canada (1905) provision was made for the creation of the new provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta out of part of the North-West Territories, and provision was made for the taking of a census of population in the two new provinces, as also in Manitoba, in the middle year of each decade, commencing with 1906. The results of the first quinquennial census, made necessary, according to the Saskatchewan and Alberta Acts, a readjustment of the representation of Saskatchewan and Alberta in the House of Commons, and at the session of 1906-07 an amendment was passed to the representation Act (Chapter 5 of the Revised Statutes 1906) providing that the House of Commons shall consist of two hundred and twenty-one (221) members, as follows:—Ontario, 86; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 18; New Brunswick, 13; Manitoba, 10; Saskatchewan, 10 (a gain of 4); British Columbia, 7; Alberta, 7 (a gain of 3); Prince Edward Island, 4; Yukon Territory, 1.

By a special clause embodied in this Act, it only took effect upon the dissolution of the last (10th) Parliament.

In the 10th Parliament the Saskatchewan constituencies were as follows:—Assiniboia East, Assiniboia West, Humboldt, Mackenzie, Qu'Appelle, Saskatchewan.

In the 11th (present) Parliament, the Saskatchewan constituencies are:—Battleford, Humboldt, Mackenzie, Moose Jaw, Prince Albert, Assiniboia, Regina, Saltcoats, Saskatoon, Qu'Appelle.

The Alberta constituencies in the 10th Parliament were as follows:—Alberta, Calgary, Edmonton, Strathcona.

In the 11th Parliament the Alberta constituencies are:—Calgary, Edmonton, MacLeod, Medicine Hat, Red Deer, Strathcona, Victoria.

The functions, powers and prerogatives of the Canadian House of Commons approximate as closely as may be to those possessed by the Lower House of the Imperial Parliament. Bills for appropriating any part of the Public Revenue, or for imposing any Tax or Import, must originate in the House of Commons. It is not lawful for the House of Commons to adopt or pass any Vote, Resolution, Address, or Bill for the Appropriation of any Part of the Public Revenue, or of any Tax or Impost, to any Purpose, that has not been first recommended to the House by Message of the Governor-General in the Session in which such Vote, Resolution, Address or Bill is proposed.

The Library of Parliament is under the direct supervision of a joint committee of the Senate and House of Commons.

THE PROVINCES.

At the head of each Provincial Government is a Lieutenant-Governor, appointed by the Governor-General-in-Council by instrument under the Great Seal of Canada, and paid out of the Federal treasury.

The Lieutenant-Governors hold office during the pleasure of the Governor-General; but they are not removable within five years, from their Appointment, except for cause assigned, which must be communicated to them in writing within one month after the order for their Removal is made, and must be communicated by Message to the Senate and to the House of Commons within one week thereafter if the Parliament is then sitting, and if not, then within one week after the commencement of the next Session of the Parliament.

In the Provinces of Ontario, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island, Manitoba, British Columbia, Saskatchewan and Alberta, there is but a single Chamber (Legislative Assembly) for each. Quebec and Nova Scotia have each a Second Chamber, or Legislative Council, the members of which are appointed for life by the Provincial Governments of those provinces.

The executive work of government in each province is carried on by the Lieutenant-Governor, advised by his Ministers, who hold seats in the Legislature and receive the support of a majority of its members. The same principle of responsible government prevails in the provincial as in the federal administration.

According to the B.N.A. Act (sec. 92 and 93).

"(92) In each Province the Legislature may exclusively make Laws in relation to matters coming within the classes of subjects next hereinafter enumerated; that is to say:—

"1. The Amendment from time to time, notwithstanding anything in this Act, of the Constitution of the Province, except as regards the Office of Lieutenant-Governor.

"2. Direct Taxation within the Province in order to the raising of a Revenue for Provincial Purposes.

"3. The borrowing of Money on the sole Credit of the Province.

"4. The Establishment and Tenure of Provincial office, and the Appointment and Payment of Provincial officers.

"5. The Management and Sale of the Public Lands belonging to the Province, and of the Timber and Wood thereon.

"6. The Establishment, Maintenance, and Management of Public and Reformatory Prisons in and for the Province.

- "7. The Establishment, Maintenance, and Management of Hospitals, Asylums, Charities, and Eleemosynary Institutions in and for the Province, other than Marine Hospitals.
- "8. Municipal Institutions in the Province.
- "9. Shop, Saloon, Tavern, and Auctioneer, and other Licenses, in order to the raising of a Revenue for Provincial, Local or Municipal Purposes.
- "10. Local Works and Undertakings, other than such as are of the following Classes:—
- "(a) Lines of Steam or other Ships, Railways, Canals, Telegraphs, and other Works and Undertakings connecting the Province with any other or others of the Provinces, or extending beyond the Limits of the Province.
- "(b) Lines of Steamships between the Province and any British or Foreign Country.
- "(c) Such Works as, although wholly situate within the Province, are before or after their Execution declared by the Parliament of Canada to be for the general advantage of Canada or for the advantage of two or more of the Provinces.
- "11. The Incorporation of Companies with Provincial Objects.
- "12. Solemnization of Marriage in the Province.
- "13. Property and Civil Rights in the Province.
- "14. The Administration of Justice in the Province, including the Constitution, Maintenance, and Organization of Provincial Courts, both of Civil and of Criminal Jurisdiction, and including Procedure in Civil Matters in these Courts.
- "15. The Imposition of Punishment by Fine, Penalty, or Imprisonment for enforcing any Law of the Province made in relation to any Matter coming within any of the Classes of subjects enumerated in this Section.
- "16. Generally all matters of a merely local or private nature in the Provinces.
- "(93.) In and for each Province the Legislature may exclusively make Laws in relation to Education, subject and according to the following Provisions:—
- "1. Nothing in any such law shall prejudicially affect any right or Privilege with respect to Denominational Schools which any Class of Persons have by Law in the Province at the Union.

- "2. All the Powers, Privileges, and Duties at the Union by Law conferred and imposed in Upper Canada on the Separate Schools and School Trustees of the Queen's Roman Catholic Subjects, shall be and the same are hereby extended to the Dissident Schools of the Queen's Protestant and Roman Catholic Subjects in Quebec.
- "3. Where in any Province a System of Separate or Dissident Schools exists by Law at the Union or is thereafter established by the Legislature of the Province, an Appeal shall lie to the Governor-General-in-Council from any Act or Decision of any Provincial Authority affecting any Right or Privilege of the Protestant or Roman Catholic Minority of the Queen's subjects in relation to Education.
- "4. In case any such Provincial Law as from Time to Time seems to the Governor-General-in-Council requisite for the due Execution of the Provisions of this Section is not made, or in case any Decisions of the Governor-General-in-Council on any Appeal under this Section is not duly executed by the proper Provincial Authority in that behalf then and in every such case, and as far only as the circumstances of each case require, the Parliament of Canada may make remedial Laws for the due Execution of the Provisions of this Section, and of any Decision of the Governor-General-in-Council under this Section."

The Legislative Councillors are "appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for life, unless the Legislature of Quebec otherwise provides." The qualifications of the Legislative Councillors are the same as members of the Senate and the place of a Legislative Councillor becomes vacant in the cases, mutatis mutandis, in which the place of Senator becomes vacant.

The Legislative Assembly is composed of members elected by the various electoral divisions into which the province is divided.

NEW BRUNSWICK LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

At, and for many years after Confederation, New Brunswick had a Legislative Council as well as a Legislative Assembly. April 16, 1891, an Act (54 Vic., Chap. This Act came into force upon the dissolution of 1892. The "Legislatures" are now officially counted from that date only, the present being known as the "Fifth," although, including the sessions prior to 1892, it is really the 12th since Confederation.

Elected by popular vote—46 members. Last g.e., March 3, 1908. Sessional indemnity, $500; the Speaker $400 additional.

PROVINCE OF ALBERTA.

With the Province of Saskatchewan formed from part of the Northwest Territories by Act of the Dominion Parliament, 1905 (first session, 10th Parliament). The two new provinces are divided by the meridian of 110° west from Greenwich. They lie between British Columbia on the west, and Manitoba and the Northwest Territories on the east, and between the International boundary at the 49th parallel on the south, and the 60th parallel on the north. From north to south each province extends 760 miles, or as long as from the mouth of the Detroit River to the mouth of the Saguenay in a straight line. The area of the two provinces is 504,190 square miles, which is as large as the united areas of Great Britain, France and Germany, as large as the States of Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota and the two Dakotas combined, and more than twice as large as the six New England States, together with New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. The provisions of the B.N.A. Act, 1867, with its several amendments apply to the new provinces. The public lands are retained by the Government of Canada, and in place of these, as a source of revenue, the provinces receive an annual sum based upon the population as from time to time ascertained by the quinquennial census.

THE TERRITORIES.

It is the practice in Canada to call the unexplored, the unorganized, and even the partially organized regions, "Territories."

The Territories, by reason of their sparse population, being to a greater or lesser extent dependant upon the more densely populated and thoroughly organized portions of the country for such laws and the administration thereof as is practicable under the peculiar circumstances, do not enjoy responsible government, neither could they exercise the privilege if they possessed it. The territorial governments are provided for by Federal statutes of considerable elasticity, which afford ample scope for expansion. As the settlement of parts of the Territories warrants the granting of a full measure of responsible government therein, they are either annexed to existing provinces or created into new ones, as in the case of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta.

See page 10, last para. of section "The Dominion of Canada."

The chief instrument employed in the administration of the Territories and in the enforcement of the law therein is the Royal Northwest Mounted Police Force, maintained by the Dominion Government. See page 464.

The Act providing for a wholly elective council of ten members, of three years' duration, comes into force on the 1st May, 1909.

THE NORTHWEST TERRITORIES.

July 31st, 1868, The "Rupert's Land Act" passed by the Imperial Parliament providing for the acquisition of the Dominion Government of "Rupert's Land" or the "Hudson Bay Territory."

May 11, 1870, £300,000 paid by the Dominion Government for the territorial rights of the Hudson Bay Company in Rupert's Land.

Manitoba and "The Northwest Territories" (Hudson Bay Territory) became a part of the Dominion July 15, 1870.

District of Keewatin, created 1876.

The districts of Alherta, Assiniboia, Athabaska and Saskatchewan formed from the southern part of the Northwest Territories, 1882.

In 1888 these districts were accorded local responsible government, and the old Northwest Council replaced by the Northwest Legislature, which existed up to Aug. 31, 1905.

Districts of Mackenzie, Ungava, and Franklin, created 1895.

The district of Keewatin, which had formerly been under the administration of the Lieut.-Governor of Manitoba, was, by Order in Council of July 24, 1905, re-annexed to the Northwest Territories and made subject to the same government and laws as the Territories.

September 1, 1905, Alberta and Saskatchewan, comprising the more settled portions of the Northwest Territories, began their existence as separate provinces.

The Northwest Territories, as at present existing, include the vast unorganized districts of Franklin, Keewatin, Mackenzie and Ungava. The term "Northwest" is misleading, for Ungava and part of Franklin are in the extreme north-east of Canada. Actually what is understood by the term Northwest Territories is the great, unoccupied, and largely unexplored territory north of the Provinces of Quebec, Ontario, Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta from the "Newfoundland strip" along the Labrador coast on the east to the boundaries of British Columbia and the Yukon Territory on the west, and all islands adjacent thereto. According to the evidence heard before a select committee of the Senate during the session of 1906-07, immense areas of the districts of Keewatin and Mackenzie offer exceptional inducements to settlers and capitalists, while Ungava possesses natural wealth in the shape of forests, mineral deposits and fisheries.

See page 10, last para. of section "The Dominion of Canada."

Population (Census of 1901)—Franklin and Keewatin, 8,546; Mackenzie, 5,216; Ungava, 5,113.

Areas.—Franklin and Keewatin, 956,997 square miles of land; 13,419 of water. Mackenzie, 521,659 square miles of land; 29,547 of water. Ungava, 349,109 square miles of land; 5,852 of water.

GOVERNMENT OF THE TERRITORIES.

The government of the Northwest Territories was provided for at the time of the interruption of the existing territorial government by the creation of the Provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta. According to the Northwest Territories Act of 1905, which is chapter 62 of the Revised Statutes of 1906, as amended in 1907, the Governor General appoints for the Territories a chief executive officer styled and known as the Commissioner of the Northwest Territories, who exercises the executive powers vested in the Lieutenant Governor in the Northwest Territories in Council on Aug. 31, 1905, the date of the separation of the new provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan from the old Northwest Territories, so far as these executive powers "are applicable to and capable of being exercised in relation to the Government of the Northwest Territories as at present constituted." There is a special provision that "The Commissioner shall administer the government of the Territories under instructions from time to time given him by the Governor in Council or the Minister of the interior." The seat of government of the Territories is to be fixed, and may from time to time be changed by the Governor in Council. The Governor in Council is also authorized to appoint a Council (not more than four members) to aid the Commissioner in the administration of the Territories. The act specially provides that the Commissioner may, subject to any orders made in that behalf, from time to time, by the Governor in Council, issue orders to the Royal Northwest Mounted Police, in aid of the administration of civil and criminal justice, and for the general peace, order and good government of the Territories.

A separate branch of the Interior Department under the direction of Mr. R. E. Young, has (1907) been organized to attend to all matters connected with the exploration and exploitation of Northern Canada.

COMMISSIONER, THE N.W. TERRITORIES.

Under the provisions of the Northwest Territories Act, Lt.-Col. Frederick White, C.M.G., of Ottawa, Comptroller of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police, was, August 24, 1905, appointed "to be Commissioner of the Northwest Territories to administer the Government of the said Territories under the provisions of the Northwest Territories Amendment Act, 1905."

WHITE, LIEUTENANT-COLONEL FREDERICK, C.M.G., was b. in Birmingham, England, Feb. 16, 1847, and ed. there. M. the eldest d. of the late R. W. Cruice, Esq., of Ottawa. On first coming to Canada lived in Montreal; moving to Ottawa to assume a position as clerk in the Department of Justice, Mar. 1, 1869. Was entrusted with the administrative work at Ottawa connected with the raising of the N.W.M.P. Promoted Chief Clerk, Sept. 23, 1878; given the title of Comptroller, Nov. same year. Was Private Secretary to the Rt. Hon. Sir John A. Macdonald from 1880 to 1882. Accorded the status of Deputy Minister, July, 1883. While residing in Montreal served in the ranks in the 3rd Victoria Rifles. Later held a commission in the Governor-General's Foot Guards, Ottawa, attaining the rank of Captain. May 17, 1901, accorded rank of Lieutenant-Colonel in the militia as a special case in recognition of his service in connection with the raising and equipment of Can. contingent for S. Africa. Created C.M.G. in 1902. Residence, Ottawa.

THE R. N. W. MOUNTED POLICE.

The Royal North-West Mounted Police Force was organized under the Act 36 Victoria, chap. 35, which was introduced into the House of Commons, May 3, 1873, by Sir John A. Macdonald, after a reconnaissance of the then comparatively unknown country west of the Red River Settlement by Col. Robertson Ross, then Adjutant-General of the militia. In the autumn of 1873 three troops or divisions were organized from drafts from the east, Winnipeg being the point of mobilization. During the summer of 1874 three new divisions were mobilized at Toronto and dispatched to Manitoba (with their arms and equipment in packing cases) via Chicago and St. Paul. The main body of the force proceeded across the prairie and established posts along the frontier as far as the foothills of the Rockies, a detachment proceeding north to Edmonton. The establishment is at present limited to 1,000 men. In November, 1903, His Majesty the King conferred the distinctive title "Royal" upon the force. Of recent years a considerable portion of the force is kept on duty in the Yukon and more northern parts of the North-West Territories. Although the organization, discipline and uniform of the force are of the military order, the body is a civil one under a separate branch of the Dominion service, presided over by the Prime Minister, the administrative head being the Comptroller, Lieut.-Colonel Frederick White, C.M.G.

The chief officers of the R.N.W.M.P., the headquarters of which are at Regina, Sask., are as follows:—

The Supreme Court of Canada (as also the Exchequer Court) was constituted in 1875 under "The Supreme and Exchequer Court Act" (38 Vic. Chap. 11).

The Supreme Court has jurisdiction as a High Court of Appeal in both civil and criminal cases throughout the Dominion of Canada. It is also a court of Appeal for controverted election cases. It also has jurisdiction in controversies between the provinces and the Dominion. The Governor-in-Council may refer to the Supreme Court for an opinion upon any matter deemed advisable in the public interest. From the decision of the Supreme Court an appeal lies to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council of Great Britain.

The Supreme Court sits in Ottawa, where the judges reside and where three sessions annually are held, beginning on the third Tuesday in February, the first Tuesday in May and the first Tuesday in October.

This section appears in this form in the Supreme Court Act, R.S.C., c. 139, s. 4.

"Provided always, that the said Senior Judge shall act in the administration of the Government only if and when Our said Chief Justice shall not be present within Our said Dominion and capable of administering the Government.

"Provided further that no such powers or authorities shall vest in such Lieutenant-Governor, or such other person or persons, until he or they shall have taken the Oaths appointed to be taken by the Governor-General of Our said Dominion, and in the manner provided by the Instructions accompanying these Our Letters Patent.

"VIII. TABLE OF PRECEDENCE FOR CANADA.

The Table of Precedence is established and subject to regulation by the Home Government, acting through the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Colonies. The first important amendment to the table was made in virtue of despatches from the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Colonies, bearing date Nov. 3, 1879, which were published in the Statutes of Canada of 1880 (43 Victoria, p. XXII). The last amendment took place in virtue of despatch dated Downing Street, Dec. 29, 1893, and published in the Canada Gazette, Jan. 20, 1894. This last amendment assigned on the recommendation of the Dominion Government, precedence to the Controllers of Customs and Inland Revenue and the Lieutenant Governors of the then newly admitted provinces and the Northwest Territories.

During the administration of Sir Mackenzie Bowell some suggestions for a further revision of the Table of Precedence were made to the Colonial Office, but there was a change of Government before the matter reached a final issue.

It will be observed that no precedence has yet been assigned to the Lieutenant-Governors of Alberta and Saskatchewan nor to the chief officers of the Militia who divide the functions of the former General Officer Commanding. The positions of Controller of Customs and Controller of Inland Revenue have ceased to exist. The Consular representatives of foreign powers in Canada and recognized heads of other than the episcopal churches have no places in the table of precedence, but are recognized, nevertheless, in actual practice. They are regularly invited to the Parliamentary functions and have of recent years been accorded defined places of entry at the Vice Regal drawing rooms.

The table is as follows:—

1. The Governor General or Officer Administering the Government.
2. The Senior Officer Commanding His Majesty's Troops within the Dominion, if of the rank of a General, and the Officer Commanding His Majesty's Naval Forces on the B.N.A. Station, if of the rank of an Admiral. Their own relative rank to be determined by the King's Regulations on the subject.
3. The Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario.
4. The Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec.
5. The Lieutenant-Governor of Nova Scotia.
6. The Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick.
7. The Lieutenant-Governor of Manitoba.
8. The Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia.
9. The Lieutenant-Governor of Prince Edward Island.
10. The Lieutenant-Governor of the North-West Territories.
11. Archbishops and Bishops, according to seniority.
12. Members of the Cabinet, according to seniority.
13. Speaker of the Senate. (1).
14. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Canada. See page 465 and 466.
15. The Chief Judges of the Courts of Law and Equity, according to Seniority.
16. Members of the Privy Council, not of the Cabinet.
17. The Solicitor-General of Canada.
18. The Controller of Customs.
19. The Controller of Inland Revenue.
20. General Officers of His Majesty's Army serving in the Dominion, and Officers of the rank of Admiral in the Royal Navy, serving on the B.N.A. Station, not being in the chief command. The relative rank of such officers to be determined by the King's Regulations.
21. The Chief Officer commanding His Majesty's troops in the Dominion, if of the rank of Colonel or inferior rank, and the Officer commanding His Majesty's Naval Forces, on the B.N.A. Station, if of equivalent rank; their relative rank to be ascertained by the King's Regulations.
22. Members of the Senate.
23. Speaker of the House of Commons.
24. Puisné Judges of the Supreme Court of Canada, according to seniority.
25. Judge of the Exchequer Court of Canada.

(1). In 1903 Lord Minto assigned the precedence, the case not yet being specially provided for, of the Right Hon. Sir Henry Strong, as an Imperial Privy Councillor, before Sir Elzéar Taschereau, then Chief Justice of Canada. His Excellency Earl Grey has sanctioned that ruling, and Imperial Privy Councillors come, at Government House, immediately after the Speaker of the Senate. See p. 6-7.

26. Puisné Judges of the Courts of Law and Equity, according to seniority.
27. Members of the House of Commons.
28. Members of the Executive Council (Provincial) within their province.
29. Speaker of the Legislative Council, within his province.
30. Members of the Legislative Council, within his province.
31. Speaker of the Legislative Assembly within his province.
32. Members of the Legislative Assembly within his province.
33. Retired Judges of whatever Courts to take precedence next after the present Judges of their respective Courts. (1).

TABLE OF CANADIAN TITLES.

1. The Governor-General of Canada to be styled "His Excellency."*

2. The Lieutenant-Governors of the Provinces to be styled "His Honour."

3. The Privy Councillors of Canada to be styled "Honourable," and for life.

4. The Solicitor-General is to be styled "Honourable" while in office.

5. Senators of Canada are to be styled "Honourable," but only during office, and the title not to be continued afterwards.

6. Executive Councillors of the Provinces to be styled "Honourable," but only while in office, and the title not to be continued afterwards.

7. The Legislative Councillors in the Provinces not in future to have that title; but gentlemen who were Legislative Councillors at the time of the Union (1st July, 1867), to retain their title of "Honourable" for life.

8. The Presidents of the Legislative Council in the Provinces to be styled "Honourable" during office.

(1) By a despatch from Lord Onslow to Lord Minto, dated Feb. 27, 1903, a retired Chief Justice of Canada takes precedence immediately after the Chief Justice of Canada in office. That ruling applies to all ex-Chief Justices, who come immediately after their respective successors in office.

* The right of the Administrator of the Government to be styled "His Excellency" was asserted by former Chief Justice Sir Henri Elzéar Taschereau, while acting in that capacity, and he was informed by the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Colonies, in reply to an enquiry, that "the Administrator is rightly styled 'His Excellency'".

A despatch of April 17, 1906, conveyed His Majesty's pleasure that the wife of the Governor-General should be styled "Her Excellency."

9. The Speaker of the House of Assembly in the Provinces to be styled "Honourable" during office.

When personally recommended for the distinction by the Governor-General, the title of "Honourable" may be retained by the President of the Senate, or by the Speaker of the House of Commons on retirement after three years of office, not necessarily continuous.

Subsequently Barons were created by "Writ" or by "Patent."

Barons of the Peerage of Ireland and Scotland have not, as such, seats in the House of Lords, but several have seats there in virtue of election or of other Imperial Titles.

Barons are styled, "The Right Hon. Lord....." and addressed as "My Lord."

STUART, Sir James (4th Bart.).

TUPPER, Sir Charles, G.C.M.G. (1st Bart.). Created 1888.

(*) The title of Baronet was originally given to a class of "Bannarets" (extinct title), who were hereditary Barons of Parliament, and occupied positions, between the "Great Barons" (Peers) and "Lesser Barons" or Knights and Gentlemen. The existing Baronetage dates from 1611, when James I. established the hereditary dignity of Baronet. Baronets comprise the lowest hereditary ranks and are addressed after the following style:—"Sir A. B. C.——— Bart."

ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD.

Knighthood was originally confined to men of arms. Henry VIII knighted sergeants-at-law and James I extended the order generally. Alfred the Great is known to have knighted Athelstan, his nephew, and knights are reported to have been made in England as early as 1506, the reputed era of King Arthur. Since the days of the Stuarts the honour of knighthood has been conferred in recognition of services rendered to the Crown in any capacity. Wherever in the knightage the husband is styled "Sir," the wife, in conventional usage, has the title "Lady" or "Dame" as in the case of a Baronetess. But in her case the honour is one of courtesy and not of right. The orders of knighthood of the Garter, the Thistle and St. Patrick are regularly restricted to nobles, but there have been two or three exceptions.

(*). The rank of Knight Bachelor is more ancient than the Knightly Orders or fraternities and owes its origin to the Knights Banneret, who were created under the royal standard on the field of battle, by the King or the Prince of Wales.

When a Knight was created a "Banneret" the tip of his long pennon was commanded to be cut off, so that it was converted into a four-square banner. This explains the old name.

It is held by some authorities that the word "Bachelor" in this usage is a corruption of "bas chevalier" as implying a lower rank of Knights than those who received the honour on the field under the Royal banner; but others consider that it should be interpreted as "lower than the knight proper."

The designation of a Knight Bachelor is the simple prefix "Sir" and it is permissible to add "Knight" or "Kt." There is no decoration attached, no limit to the numbers of members, and no officers.

OFFICIAL RULES RE SPELLING.

The spelling in official documents in all branches of the public service of the Dominion of Canada is regulated by a minute of the Privy Council signed by the late Rt. Hon. Sir John A. Macdonald, dated May 30, 1890, and reading as follows:—

"The undersigned, to whom was referred a communication from Doctor Hurlbert addressed to the Secretary of State on the subject of the spelling of certain English words, and also a letter from the Queen's printer in reference thereto, has the honour to report:—

"That, in his opinion, the only question with respect to the spelling of such words as "honour," "favour," "labour," "honourable," and the like is, what is the mode now accepted by the best authorities in England? It appears to him to be obvious that the same system should obtain in all portions of the British Empire.

"On a reference to the best dictionaries and encyclopædias now in use in England, it will be seen that these words are spelt with the "u," and that such forms as "labor," "favor," "honor," "honorable," etc., are apparently confined to the United States, with the exception of some few instances where they have been adopted in Canada.

"In consequence of this reference the undersigned has taken occasion to inquire into the mode of spelling these words in official and Legislative use in England, and he has ascertained that the "u" is in all such cases retained.

"The undersigned therefore recommends the issue of instructions to the effect that in all official documents, in the Canada Gazette, and in the Dominion Statutes, the English practice be uniformly followed.

"All of which is respectfully submitted."

A handbook of rules authorized for use at the Government Printing Bureau, practically regulates (under the above minute of Council) the systems of spelling, contractions, capitalization, punctuation, etc., in Government publications.

According to this book, the "Imperial Dictionary" is the standard to be followed in all cases of orthography. When there is a choice, preference is to be given to the spelling under which the definition is found.

Foreign words, such as "ad valorem," "aide-de-camp," which have become anglicized by constant use, incorporated into English sentences, should not be in italics.

"Capital letters are to be avoided as much as possible, but to be used in the following cases:—

(1). All proper names, gentile nouns and adjectives derived therefrom, nouns and adjectives formed from proper names, and names of religions begin with capitals.

(2). Leading substantives in the titles of books or publications must be capitalized.

(3). The first word of every direct quotation, example, precept or question, should begin with a capital letter, and be preceded by a punctuation mark, preferably by a comma. Quotations introduced indirectly as by conjunction that, or examples, consisting of more words or phrases, take a small letter.

(4). The word Department, Titles of Honour, etc., etc., are capitalized as proper names when preceded or succeeded by name of Department, as Department of Public Printing and Stationery, His Majesty the King, Minister of Public Works.

(5). Names of streets, roads, etc., to be two words, with Initial capitals, as Sparks Street, Cartier Square.

(6). Act, when referring to act of Parliament, is capitalized.

THE GEOGRAPHIC BOARD.

Questions concerning geographic names in Canada are decided by the Geographic Board of Canada, created by Order in Council dated Dec. 18, 1897, and reading as follows:—

"His Excellency, by and with the advice of the Queen's Privy Council of Canada is pleased to create a 'Geographic Board' to consist of one member for each of the Departments of the Geological Survey, Railways and Canals, Post Office, and Marine and Fisheries, such member being appointed by the Minister of the Department; of the Surveyor General of Dominion Lands, of such other members as may from time to time be appointed by Order in Council, and of an officer of the Department of the Interior, designated by the Minister of the Interior, who shall act as secretary of the Board; and to authorize the Board to elect its chairman and to make such rules and regulations for the transaction of its business as may be requisite.

"His Excellency is further pleased to order and direct, that all questions concerning geographic names in the Dominion which arise in the departments of the public service shall be referred to the Board, and that all departments shall accept and use in their publications the names and orthography adopted by the Board."

This Order in Council was amended by another of date Dec. 14, 1899, which provided:—

"That the Order in Council constituting the Board be amended by giving to the government of the North-West Territories and to each Province the right to nominate one of their officials as a member of the Board, who shall advise the Board with reference to names in his Province, provided that the several governments undertake to be guided by the decisions of the Board."

The Geographic Board is composed of the following:—

RULES OF NOMENCLATURE.

The following general rules of nomenclature have been laid down by the Geographic Board:—

1. When the priority of a name has been established by publication, particularly when such publication has occurred in any standard or authoritative work or works, that name should, if possible, be retained.

2. When names have been changed or corrupted, if not too firmly established by local usage or otherwise, the original forms should be restored.

3. In cases where what was evidently originally the same word, appears with various spellings sanctioned by local usage or otherwise, these various spellings when applied to different features should be regarded as in effect different names, and as a rule it is inadvisable to attempt to produce uniformity.

4. As a rule the first published name should be retained, but where a choice is offered between two or more names for the same place or locality, all sanctioned by local usage, that which is most appropriate and euphonious should be adopted.

5. The possessive form should be avoided whenever it can be done without destroying the euphony of the name or changing its descriptive application. Where the possessive form is retained, the apostrophe should be dropped.

6. It is desirable to avoid the use of hyphens to connect parts of Indian names.

7. Names consisting of more than one word may be connected by hyphens or combined in one word as may be advisable.

8. It is desirable to avoid the use of the words city and town as parts of names.

9. The form 'canyon' may be used instead of 'canon'.

10. The term 'brook' is considered preferable to 'creek' for designating small streams, and will be adopted in cases where the latter has not become too firmly fixed.

11. The Board suggests that the initial letters of generic or descriptive parts of geographical names, when used in reports or other documents, should not be capitals.

12. The use of alternative names should be discontinued where possible or not inconvenient.

13. Geographical names in foreign countries should be rendered in the form adopted by that country, except where there are English equivalents already fixed by usage.

14. French names in Canada are to be spelt according to the rules of the French language.

15. The spelling of native geographical names should represent, approximately, the true sounds of the words as pronounced in the native tongue.

16. The Board adopts the rules of the Royal Geographical Society for the orthography of geographical names, of which the broad features are as follows:—

- (a) The vowels are to be pronounced as in Italian and the consonants as in English.
- (b) Every letter is pronounced, and no redundant letters are introduced. When two vowels come together each one is sounded, though the result, when spoken quickly, is sometimes scarcely to be distinguished from a single sound, as in ai, au, ei.
- (c) One accent is used, the acute, to denote the syllable on which stress is laid. This is very important, as the sounds of many names are entirely altered by the misplacement of this 'stress.'

The following amplification of these rules explains their application:—

Letters.	Pronunciation and Remarks.	Examples.
a	ah , a as in father	Java, Banana, Somli,
e	eh , a as in fate	Bari. Tel el Kebir, Oleleh, Yezo, Medina, Levuka, Peru.
i	English e ; i as in ravine ; the sound of ee in beet . Thus, not Feejee , but.....	Fiji, Hindi.
o	as in mote	Tokyo.
u	long u as in flute ; the sound of oo in boot . oo or ou should never be employed for this sound. Thus, not Zooloo , but.....	Zulu, Sumatra
	All vowels are shortened in sound by doubling the following consonant	Yarra, Tanna, Mecca. Jidda.
	Doubling of a vowel is only necessary where there is a distinct repetition of the single sound. ...	Nuulua, Oosima.
ai	as in aisle , or English i as in ice ..	Shanghai.
au	ow as in how . Thus, not Foochow , but.....	Fuchau.
ao	is slightly different from above...	Macao.
aw	when followed by a consonant or attend of a word, as in law	Cawnpore.

Letters.	Pronunciation and Remarks.	Examples.
ei	is the sound of the two Italian vowels, but is frequently slurred over, when it is scarcely to be distinguished from ei in the English eight or ey in the English they	Beirut, Beilul.
b	English b .
c	is always soft, but is so nearly the sound of s that it should be seldom used. If Celebes were not already recognized it would be written Selebes .	Celebes.
ch	is always soft as in church	Chinghin.
d	English d .
f	English f . ph should not be used for the sound of f . Thus, not Haiphong , but.	Haifong, Nafa.
g	is always hard. (Soft g is given by j).	Galapagos.
h	is always pronounced when inserted.
hw	as in what ; better rendered by hw than by wh , or h followed by a vowel, thus Hwang ho , not Whang ho , or Hoang ho	Hwang ^h ho ^h Nganhwei.
j	English j . Dj should never be put for this sound.	Japan, Jinchuen.
k	English k . It should always be put for the hard c . Thus, not Corea , but.	Korea.
kh	The Oriental guttural.	Khan.
gh	is another guttural, as in the Turkish.	Dagh, Ghazi.
l	} As in English.
m n
ng	has two separate sounds, the one hard as in the English word finger , the other as in singer . As these two sounds are rarely employed in the same locality, no attempt is made to distinguish between them.
p	As in English.
ph	As in loophole	Chemulpho, Mokpho.
th	stands both for its sound in thing , and as in this . The former is most common.	Bethlehem.
q	should never be employed; qu (in quiver) is given as kw When qu has the sound of k as in quoil , it should be given by k .	Kwangtung.

Letters.	Pronunciation and Remarks.	Examples.
r	} As in English.	Sawakin.
s
sh
t v
w
x	} is always a consonant, as in yard , and therefore should never be used as a terminal, i or e being substituted as the sound may require. Thus, not Mikindany , but.....	Kikuyu.
y
	not Kwaly , but.....	Mikindani.
z	English z	Kwale.
zh	The French j , or as s in treasure ...	Zulu.
	Accents should not generally be used, but where there is a very decided emphatic syllable or stress, which affects the sound of the word, it should be marked by an acute accent.....	Muzhdaha.

CONSULAR REPRESENTATIVES OF FOREIGN POWERS IN CANADA. (*)

(Feb. 28, 1909).

A complete list of consular representatives, including the numerous merchant consuls (who are generally not subjects of the countries they represent), appears in the annual reports of the Honourable the Secretary of State.

The following is a list of the Consuls General and Consuls of foreign powers in Canada, who are members of the regular consular services of their respective countries, and known as members of "the classified service" in the United States, as "Consuls de carrière" as distinguished from "merchant consuls" in most continental consular services, and as officers of the first Categoria in the Italian service.

(*) June 1, 1906, a circular letter issued from Downing Street over the signature of Lord Elgin, Secretary of State for the Colonies, regarding the position and treatment of foreign consuls in the colonies and laying down certain principles for the guidance of governors of colonies. The following are extracts from this letter:—

"You will understand that it is not expected that they (the principles laid down) can be applied in colonies where a different practice has been established, but it is my desire that Colonial Governors should look to them as a guide in future when opportunities occur of applying them without unnecessary friction.

"No general instructions to Colonial Governors respecting the position and treatment of consuls appear to have been issued since a date nearly forty years ago, when it was intimated that if in any colony precedence was, as a matter of courtesy, already accorded to the foreign consular body, no alteration should be made, with the view of assimilating the practice to that in force in this country, without reference to the Secretary of State. This principle, I may now observe, equally extends to the colonies, and it is not desirable that any instructions should be given tending to recognize the principle of according precedence to the foreign consular body. In 1863 a claim was advanced by the consular body at Sydney to be admitted to the entrée at the Governor's levée on the occasion of the Sovereign's birthday, and it was then stated that the rule of Her Majesty's Court was, that as consuls general and consuls had no diplomatic character, and were not visitors of the Court,

"It would prove in the highest degree inconvenient if in British colonies consuls of foreign powers should be permitted to acquire a claim to the privileges or immunities of diplomatic agents, or to assume in any other respect a footing different from that which they hold in the United Kingdom."

* * * * *

"As to ceremonials and formal courtesies. From the earlier part of this despatch it will be clear that the consuls are not entitled to be specially received at public functions, and that they should not be given any precedence over local officials. In regard to this point, I may observe that, even if it were not objectionable on other grounds, it would be impossible to lay down general rules as to precedence over officials, having regard to the varying importance in different colonies of what is nominally the same office, and if special rules were laid down in each case they would give rise to endless claims from consuls founded on the practice elsewhere which was most favourable to their contentions. The preceding considerations need not, however, prevent the Governors from specially receiving the consuls, as a body on certain occasions such as the King's Birthday or on his own first arrival in the colony, as an act of courtesy and not as a right, if this practice, which has been followed at the Cape since 1898, should be passed upon him." BIOGRAPHICAL AND PERSONAL INDEX.

With a view of shortening and simplifying this index as much as possible, and having in view the distinctive character of this volume as a year book of Canadian parliamentary reference, names appearing in the tables of former Dominion and Provincial administrations, in the list of the British Ministry, in that of foreign consular officers in Canada, and in that of the United States government, are omitted from this index. The tables in the section on Imperial distinctions are not indexed, the names appearing in alphabetical order.

Synopsis of Canadian Northwest Land Regulations.

ANY person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years old, may homestead a quarter-section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta. The applicant must appear in person at the Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-Agency for the district. Entry by proxy may be made at any agency, on certain conditions, by father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of intending homesteader.

DUTIES.—Six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each of three years. A homesteader may live within nine miles of his homestead on a farm of at least 80 acres solely owned and occupied by him or by his father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister.

In certain districts a homesteader in good standing may pre-empt a quarter-section alongside his homestead. Price $3.00 per acre. Duties—Must reside six months in each of six years from date of homestead entry (including the time required to earn homestead patent) and cultivate fifty acres extra.

A homesteader who has exhausted his homestead right and cannot obtain a pre-emption may take a purchased homestead in certain districts. Price $3.00 per acre. Duties—Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate fifty acres and erect a house worth $300.00.

THE ROYAL MILITARY COLLEGE.

There are few national institutions of more value and interest to the country than the Royal Military College at Kingston. At the same time its object and the work it is accomplishing are not sufficiently understood by the general public.

The College is a Government institution, designed primarily for the purpose of giving the highest technical instructions in all branches of military science to cadets and officers of Canadian Militia. In fact it is intended to take the place in Canada of the English Woolwich and Sandhurst and the American West Point.

The Commandant and military instructors are all officers on the active list of the Imperial army, lent for the purpose, and in addition there is a complete staff of professors for the civil subjects which form such a large proportion of the College course. Medical attendance is also provided.

Whilst the College is organized on a strictly military basis the cadets receive in addition to their military studies a thoroughly practical, scientific and sound training in all subjects that are essential to a high and general modern education.

The course in mathematics is very complete and a thorough grounding is given in the subjects of Civil Engineering, Civil and Hydrographic Surveying, Physics, Chemistry, French and English.

The strict discipline maintained at the College is one of the most valuable features of the system.

In addition the constant practice of gymnastics, drills and outdoor exercises of all kinds, ensures good health and fine physical condition.

Seven commissions in His Majesty's regular army are annually awarded as prizes to the cadets.

Three Commissions in the Permanent Force will be given annually, should vacancies exist, to the graduating class, viz.:—Every year one in the Infantry; and each alternate year:

One in the Engineers and one in the Horse Artillery.

One in the Cavalry or Mounted Rifles and one in the Garrison Artillery.

Further, every three years a Commission in the Ordnance Corps will be given to the graduating class.

Three 2nd class clerkships, or appointments with equivalent pay, will be offered annually to the graduating class, such appointments to be in the following Departments, viz.:—Public Works, Railways and Canals, Inland Revenue, Agriculture and Interior.

The length of the course is three years, in three terms of 9½ months' residence each.

The total cost of the three years' course, including board, uniforms, instructional material, and all extras, is from $750 to $800.

The annual competitive examination for admission to the College will take place at the headquarters of the several military districts in which candidates reside, in May of each year.

For full particulars of this examination or for any other information, application should be made as soon as possible, to the Secretary of the Militia Council, Ottawa, Ont.; or to the Commandant, Royal Military College, Kingston, Ont.
